Shareholders or their representatives should register when registration opens so that officials have sufficient time to review the registration documents.

4. Criteria for voting at shareholder meetings

General agenda	1) Voting for each agenda item is counted as one vote per share. Shareholders or proxies must vote only one way, that is, agree, disagree or abstain. Voting cannot be divided into parts. 2) In the case of proxy <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The proxy must vote only as specified by the grantor in the proxy form. The vote of the proxy for any agenda item is not as specified in the proxy form. It will be considered invalid and not considered the vote of the shareholder. - If the proxy does not specify his or her intention to vote on any agenda in the proxy form or is not clearly specified, or in the event that the meeting considers or votes on any matter other than what is specified in the proxy form, including cases where any facts have been changed or added. The proxy has the right to consider and vote on their behalf as they see fit.
Director election agenda	For the agenda for the election of directors. The shareholder meeting is required to elect directors according to the following criteria and methods. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) One shareholder or proxy has votes equal to the number of shares held. 2) Each shareholder or proxy will use all of their votes according to Section 1 to elect one or more persons as directors. In the case of electing several persons as directors, the votes cannot be divided among any of them to any extent. 3) The persons who receive the highest number of votes in descending order are elected as directors equal to the number of directors that should be or will be elected at that time. In the event that the persons elected in descending order have the same number of votes, the number of directors that should be or will be elected at that time exceeds the number of directors. The chairman will have the deciding vote.

5. Procedures for voting at meetings

1.	The meeting chairman or officers will explain the details of the voting method to the meeting, which uses the voting counting method of 1 share per 1 vote.
2.	The chairman of the meeting will propose to shareholders to consider voting on each agenda. The opinions of the meeting will be asked as to which shareholders agree, disagree, or abstain from voting by allowing shareholders or proxies to have only one opinion. (Unless it is the vote of the custodian which in the proxy form specifies that the votes can be divided)
3.	In the event that there are shareholders or representatives of shareholders who have the right to attend the meeting registering to attend the meeting after the meeting has opened at the time specified in the meeting invitation letter, the Company reserves the right to abstain. Voting for agendas that have already been considered and the voting results announced have been completed. Shareholders or their representatives will be able to vote only for the remaining agenda items.

6. Vote counting and notification of vote counting

The officers will count the votes only for shareholders who wish to vote against or abstain from voting on each agenda item that has been marked on the voting confirmation card distributed by the company when registering to attend the meeting. The votes of disapproval or abstention will be deducted from the total number of votes attending the meeting. The remaining votes will be considered as votes cast in favor of that agenda.

The company will announce the voting results for each agenda item to ensure clarity. Transparent and verifiable. The results of the vote counting will be informed to the meeting on every agenda before the meeting ends.
